Hundreds of students from schools across the region are expected to attend the 2009 Career Expo on Apr. 28, 2009, at RTEC, 1200 W. 21st St. in Yankton. The Expo runs from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

At the Career Expo, co-sponsored by RTEC and the SD National Guard, students will have countless opportunities to learn:

- about the varied careers that are available in the region
- what types of education and training they'll need to prepare for a good career
- what sources of financial assistance may be available
- about what certain careers involve as they participate in hands-on activities and watch demonstrations

Although the list of participants is not yet complete, students are certain to leave with valuable information and advice from manufacturers, health care providers and employers, training and service providers, colleges, tech schools, universities, financial institutions, trade associations, law enforcement and many more.

There is no charge to attend. Information has been mailed to schools across the region and many plan to transport students to the event. Thanks to the SD National Guard, funding is available to help schools cover those transportation costs.
